Adoptions from this past week!

Malley was adopted by the Anne & John Merica family in Arlington, Virginia. Malley joins a house that includes 2 kids, 3 cats and 1 dog. She greatly enjoyed exploring her new home and interacting with the kids – good adoption.

Cheddar is now living with the William Jordan family in Queenstown. He joins another kitty in the house, about 1 year old now, that they originally found near their home as a feral kitten. When Cheddar and her brother Cheetos were brought to ARF as little kittens they were semi-feral with much hissing and spitting. With lots of care, attention and love from staff and interacting in Deanna Johns' home she became tremendously sweet.

The Shearer met Spirit at the Maryland Seafood Festival, filled out the necessary paperwork and now Spirit is living in Hanover, PA. Spirit is so happy to have such a loving caring family adopt him. He is also living in a home with a young lady that is 11 years old and loving life.

Adoption Updates!

*Spring and Prissy are Home Sweet Home!
The Playful Cats now live on Kent Island!*

Our beloved Heidi found a home!

She had been at ARF since February of 2010. Being that she was an older dog not too many people were interested in adopting her. Well she did find a wonderful loving family to adopt her no matter how old she is. Heidi is now living in Dover, Maryland and sharing her home with two other dogs, Max and Mandy and three cats, KoKo, Abby and Kit Kat. Deborah Fleischer and her mother's hearts went out to her and couldn't wait for her to join their family.

Maddie (formerly Magnolia) just turned 2 years old!! She's a toddler now! She was born October 16, 2008 and was adopted by the lovely Akermann family and are so thankful to have her with their family!

Ellie has found her comfort spot in the Carlton house - in their beds! She is doing great on the leash and runs forever in the backyard. Ellie and her puppies have found loving, caring homes thanks to ARF and loving families.
