Hello ARF Friends,

SPECIAL THANK YOU'S

ARF would like to thank Tom (left) and John (right) for helping Lauren and Patty take on the responsibility of fostering two of the puppies from our Adoption Center. Both families already have multiple pets at home so we know it can be very tiresome adding another one.

There are still many puppies at our adoption center. If interested in fostering please give our office a call.

ADOPTION NEWS

Wayne and Susan drove Carrabelle to Norriton, PA last Sunday where her new family was anxiously waiting to welcome her into their home. Below you will see a recent update.

Susan, We are all very happy with our new addition - she is doing well...I think the lightbulb went on for her Monday evening for going outside and since then very few accidents! She's going three hours through the night and about the same during the day. We walk her on the pathways through the woods as a treat after she's gone...she's adjusted well to the crate-goes in on her own when it's open during the day and whines very little at night when she's in our room.
thanks again, Cathy

Sammie arrived to her new home Thursday evening in Arnold, Maryland. She is now living in a busy household with two children and two cats. The family is planning to enroll Sammie in an obedience class as well as trying out an agility course. Sammie is such an active pup and needs a job. I truly believe this family will find the right job for her. Have fun Sammie!

Many months had gone by where Caroline thought she would never find the right family. Well her time did come! She moved to Towson, Maryland on Thursday night. She is now living with a wonderful, retired couple that are ready to give Caroline all the love and attention she deserves. Susan had a tough time letting go, but knew when she walked away, Caroline will be very happy once she adjusts to her new home and family. Caroline, the staff and volunteers wish you the best, you deserve it!

NOTES FROM ADOPTIVE FAMILIES

Hey Susan and the gang!

I was looking around on the website and thought I'd send you an update on Lilly. She will be 2 in about 10 days and she's doing really well. She's pretty well trained, still working on some of the more complicated commands. She has stopped growing and has topped out at about 30-33lbs. She's a great dog!

I hope to get over there to visit soon so you can see her, but I've moved across the bridge. I've attached some recent pictures of my baby for you to see! Tina

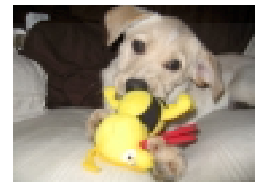

Dear Susan, Wayne and Everyone at ARF,

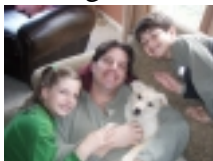

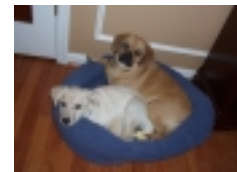

I just wanted to write and give you a brief update on Sandy (which I now call her Molly) since she has moved to Baltimore. She has been a blessing to my life, plus she is a wonderful and amazing puppy. She quickly found her home on the sofa surrounded by plenty of toys. She is also working really hard on potty training and learning how to sit and shake (anything for a treat ;-). Also, we are both excited to start her upcoming Puppy Preschool classes at Petsmart.

To everyone at ARF, there are not enough words to express the gratitude I have for y'all bringing this little bundle of joy, happiness and love into my life. I have attached a picture of Molly (Sandy) at her Puppy Shower my co-workers threw for her. She was the hit of the party! Thank you! Bettina

Hi. Just wanted to give you a great big "thank you" for our new dog from your shelter. You had named her "Daytona" (the lab/golden puppy born 1/11/07) and we changed her name to "Maya". She is such a loving, wonderful animal. We adore her. She gets along great with our other dog Roxy.

They play all the time. And she is a great leash dog. I walk her every morning from 1 to 3 miles (depending on her energy). We're crate training her and working really hard to train her to pee and poop outside. She's a quick learner-- she's almost there. Enclosed are a few pictures of how well she fits into our family.

Thanks again-- we had such a wonderful experience working with your shelter!
Fondly, Hilary Loewenstein
