ADOPTION NEWS

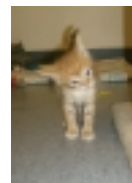

Freedom finally found her forever home! After a few visits with Freedom at ARF's Adoption Center the Walzak family decided they would like to foster Freedom. Well that was the last time that Freedom came to stay at the Center. Valerie Walzak became very attached and decided to adopt her. Freedom is now living in Stevensville with one other dog. Freedom's sister Liberty (picture above) is still looking for her forever home.

Cookie is also another lucky pup that was adopted by her foster family, John, Kaiju and Sam Roush. She is now residing in Stevensville, Maryland and sharing her new home with one other dog. Cookie's siblings Lauren and Dudley are still available.

Oscar moved to his new home on Tuesday evening. He is now living in Stewartstown, Pennsylvania with the Parks family and sharing his home with two very big active Labs. Because Oscar has been sharing his temporary home at the Adoption Center with many dogs, he felt right at home. Wayne said before he left to go home, Oscar was showing these two dogs just how things were going to be for now on. Way to go Oscar!

The Steinbruck's family adopted Merlot and Chessie together. Nicole delivered them to their new home this week. We were so happy to have them adopted together. They are now living in Grasonville, Maryland.

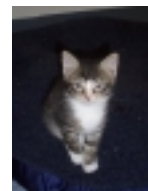

Willow is a sibling of Chessie and Merlot. She also moved to her new home in Grasonville, Maryland to the Steinbruck family. This is the group of kittens that Patty and John Bowers bottle-fed.

CAT/KITTEN NEWS

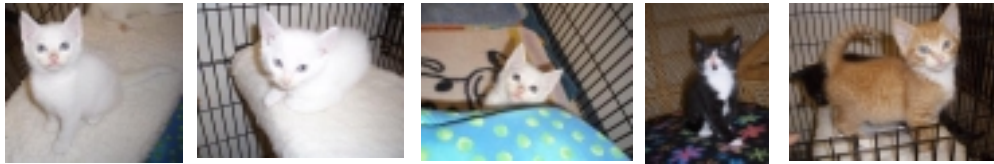

Because we placed so many cat and kittens in new homes in the last two to four weeks, we were able to save a few more. Please meet our newest rescues:

This is Mittens and her three kittens, Binx, Boots and Slippers. Mittens is still a baby herself but her three kittens are about 5 weeks old and will be ready to move to a new home when they are 8 weeks old.

Also new temporary residents of ARF: (left to right) Crystal, Gizmo, Seymore, Socks and Todd. They are 6 weeks old and will be ready for new homes when they are 8 weeks old.

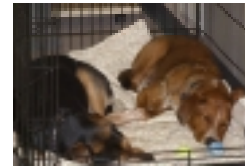

DOG/PUPPY NEWS

Mia is the mom of Cookie, Dudley and Lauren. She is about 4 to 5 years old, up-to-date on shots, spayed and micro-chipped. She is very playful, loves to play ball, housetrained and has wonderful house manners. If you are looking for a great companion be sure to stop by and meet Mia.

Bridgett (left of crate in picture) has been living at ARF's Adoption Center for about 1 year now. She is very shy and it takes her awhile to warm up to new people so she is usually overlooked when people come in to adopt. Bonnie (right of crate) has been living at the Center for about a month now and wow, Bridgette has become a different dog. Wherever you see Bonnie you will see Bridgette very close by. She even looks forward to her walks now as long as Bonnie is coming along. Wouldn't it be great if Bridgette could find a home together with Bonnie?

Billie's Puppies are getting so big. They will be 8 weeks soon. We are accepting applications. Left to right, Gilligan, Sailor, Thurston, Tiller, Minnow and Skipper.

They are Skipperke/Chihuahua mixes. Mom is also available, she is small and only weighs about 7 lbs.

LETTER OF THANKS

Dear Friends, Our daughter, Heather Taylor, recently adopted a kitten from your facility. She has had nothing but praise for the wonderful work you do and how kind you were to her. Little "Purfect" (now Keefer) is a joy to her life. Thank you for your fine work and let's look forward to the day when all homeless pets are rescued into loving homes!
Sincerely Lloyd and Carol Taylor
